BWC MONTHLY UPDATE

December 2022

BWC Safety Newsletter

Safety newsletters and safety bulletins | Bureau of Workers' Compensation \(ohio.gov\)

BWC Relaunches the Safety Intervention Grant

The Safety Intervention Grant Program (SIG) is now accepting applications! Employers can complete their application and their reporting requirements online.

The SIG program provides 3-to-1 matching funds up to $40,000 for state fund private and public employers. The funds are available to purchase equipment to substantially reduce or eliminate injuries and illness associated with a particular task or operation.

BWC Administrator becomes Governor DeWine's New Chief of Staff: Stephanie McCloud

John Logue will be appointed as the new administrator/CEO of Ohio BWC. Logue is the bureau's current chief of strategic direction. Logue is a veteran of the Ohio workers' compensation system, "with a background that includes more than 25 years of experience in various client service and leadership roles."

News and Events

The Centers for Disease Control has information for you to help prevent the spread of flu in the workplace. For a current state-specific map of influenza spread check out the ILINet State Activity Indicator Map.

Holiday Workplace Safety - OSHA

As we enter the busy holiday season here are some holiday workplace safety tips for you and your employees.

Temporary Workers OSHA has developed a resource Protecting Temporary Workers: Best Practices for Host Employers, that offers best practices tailored specifically to the needs of host employers. The document also includes checklists that can be printed or completed electronically and scenarios illustrating how the best practices might be implemented.

Dollar General safety violations continue

Dollar General Corp. is already in OSHA's Severe Violator Enforcement Program. A recent inspection in Ohio added $341,842 to the more than $15 million in fines the company has received since 2017.

5 LESSONS LEARNED FROM MY NEAR DEATH EXPERIENCE

1. Before my accident I had abilities that I took for granted
2. I wasn't thankful for the things I had
3. Life is a gift and should be celebrated because it can be taken away in the blink of an eye
4. NEVER, EVER, EVER, EVER give up on yourself
5. If I can Make Every Second Count and so can you

Safety First!

Because you have to be alive to

Make Every Second Count

If you see something, say something

Ask for help if you need it!
